BIPOC SCHOLARSHIPS

EQUUSOMA® is committed to anti-racist and anti-oppressive practice, and supports interspecies social justice as part of a trauma-informed perspective. As a result, EQUUSOMA® is issuing two full scholarships per cohort for eligible students who identify as Black, Indigenous, or as another person of colour who faces inequities as a result of racialized trauma. To apply, please submit a short essay (500 to 1,500 words) outlining your background, your professional goals, and how you intend to apply EQUUSOMA® within your scope of practice.

We want to ensure that we are being mindful of how we are applying the scholarships in light of recent highly publicized cases involving misidentification and misrepresentation of ancestry. Given our desire to be respectful of this sensitive issue, please provide us with any details or clarification that supports your application in your essay.

The deadline to apply for a scholarship is June 1, 2022. Two full scholarship winners will be selected. Eligible participants who are not awarded a scholarship may be eligible for a reduced registration fee at the discretion of the Schlote Psychotherapy Professional Corporation.

DISCLAIMER

There may be changes in training structure and completion requirements that occur as a result of the model evolving or due to adapting to extenuating circumstances, like global pandemics. Every effort will be made to support students through these adjustments to program completion. We appreciate everyone's patience and grace as we adjust to unforeseen realities.

PAYMENT AND CANCELLATION POLICY

Payment is required to hold your spot in the training. It is possible to pay in two instalments of 50% each, provided that the entire registration fee is received in full by the first day of the training. You are eligible for a 100% refund if cancelling more than 60 days from the first day of the training, and a 50% refund if cancelling between 30-59 days from the first day of the training (a $100 administrative fee is applied to process refunds). Regretfully, no refunds are possible for cancellations that occur within 30 days of the first day of the training. If you are unable to attend, these options are available on compassionate grounds:

- Transfer credits: You may transfer your spot to someone else to take the training you registered for. You would be responsible for finding your replacement and obtaining full reimbursement from this person. Alternately, if you would like us to fill your spot on your behalf, we will refund you 80% of your registration fee (minus the $100 admin fee) if we are successful.
- Banking credits: We can "bank" your registration fee and apply it toward the cost of a future training occurring within 2 years from the training you paid to attend.

If for whatever reason the trainer needs to cancel the training, you will receive a full refund of your registration fee or deposit (or a pro-rated refund if the program has started and must be cancelled due to extenuating circumstances). The Schlote Psychotherapy Professional Corporation and its representatives are not liable or responsible for any fees or lost wages incurred as a result of having to reserve time to attend the training should it be cancelled, or for any penalties or expenses incurred as a result of having to cancel your travel or accommodations. This includes, but is not limited to, cancellations due to the global COVID-19 pandemic or other unexpected circumstances.

Your signature indicates you have read, understand and agree to abide by this policy.
